STEEL LINE

Introducing our new ceramic-coated steel cookware collection. Heavyweight steel heats rapidly and cooks like a dream. Three high-sided, straight-walled sauté pans are designed for superior browning, searing, simmering, and frying, while a grill pan, wok and griddle provide special-purpose cooking capabilities to round out the collection.

Our proprietary three-layer Swiss-made ceramic coating provides durability and slick release as a result of nanotechnology. Best of all, it's free from PFAS, heavy metals and toxins for safe, healthy cooking.
